

“See, I am sending an angel before you to protect you on your journey and lead you safely to the place I have prepared for you.” –Exodus 23:20

Dear Friends:

My past month has been full of transition and change, but God is faithful. Just as God kept his promise to bring the Israelites safely to the Promised Land, God has protected, provided, and even prepared a place for me.

On March 1, with a U-Haul in tow and my mom alongside me, I began my journey from Oregon to California. The three-day trip went smoothly without any problems. I was thankful for a safe trip, but especially grateful for God’s provision. Before I left Oregon, many people in my church and community gave me money for moving expenses. All of our gas and most of our meals were covered by these funds. What an unexpected blessing! I am still so thankful.

Since arriving in San Diego, I’ve been amazed at the way God has prepared a place for me. My first weekend here I participated in Mexican Medical’s March Brigada, a large medical and evangelistic fair in Tijuana, Mexico. I helped in the children’s area and was given an incredible opportunity. A woman from a church in Tijuana and I got to share about God’s love and salvation with nearly 220 children! Teaching children about God’s love is one of my favorite things to do, so I was very pleased to have that opportunity.

I am grateful for how God has prepared a place for me in the Mexican Medical office as well. Over the past year, the office has been short-staffed. I’ve been able to serve in numerous areas, including: preparing valuable files for the annual audit, handling incoming money, and helping update Mexican Medical’s list of partners. I have felt most useful doing organization and detail-oriented tasks to help the office run more smoothly. I am glad to be able to fill a much-needed role as I serve here.

Praises & Prayer:

As you can see from this update, God has protected, prepared, and provided for me in numerous ways. I am also very thankful to have adjusted much more easily than I expected! My roommates and co-workers have been so welcoming and have included me in many of their activities. I have not felt very lonely, which means a lot living in a new place. Please join me in praising God for these many blessings!

Here are some ways you can be praying:

- Guidance (for my boss and me) as my position and roles here at the office continue to grow and develop.
- Direction as I seek new financial partners, that I would know how to connect with them, and that they would have willing, generous hearts.
- Effectiveness in ministry whether it be faithfulness in office responsibilities, showing God's love to the people who come to our office, or serving in other ways.

Looking ahead... May 21: I will participate in a one-day dental team trip to the Gabriel House – a home for children with disabilities or immune diseases near Ensenada, Mexico. I am excited to be a part of this team, as I have never visited this Mexican Medical site. I would appreciate prayers for safe travel on that day, too!

Thank you for your encouragement, prayers, and support!

Sincerely,

Megan Stone
