Caronport Community Church

Starting Easter Sunday we took the team to the beach for them to join the local church for their traditional Easter service and baptism. It was a great day worshipping God, seeing a dozen people baptized, and sampling delicious home made food.

Partnering with The Angels we had a Children's program at the local church. With 70 to 80 children each day it was a great way to share God's love with the community. The Angels led the biblical part of the program and the team took responsibility for a craft and snack each day. A great partnership of two countries and cultures coming together to share Jesus.

The team finished our part of a new house for a church family by installing the roof. They also, installed the insulation and Ken continued his training of Eduardo by having him do the electrical work on the house.

As always it was a great week and an ongoing partnership between Caronport Community Church, the local church, The Angels, and Mexican Medical.

The Angels

Lynne and I are so excited to see how God is motivating the youth to step out and develop new ministries. Not only have they been learning new ways to share Jesus through the traditional children's outreaches, but are finding new ways to help people. Ely (our student leader) and Isabel (a former Angel) have a real heart to serve God. They asked the church if they could recruit others for the church to assist them as they go a hospital in Ensenada and pray for people as they wait in line to be seen by the medical staff. They have 12 youth who want to be a part of this and two couples who will do the driving and oversee their ministry. On Friday, May 30 they went to Ensenada and had an awesome experience. Not only did they pray for people but handed out 120 burritos, several blankets, and two of the youth gave away their coats to people in need.

Lynne and I are so pleased and excited to see the youth with whom we have been working with the past 10 years taking steps to expand their influence of Jesus, by serving others. What a great example for others to follow.

Spring Trip

We traveled to Denver to visit Good News Community church over two weekends. This gave us opportunity to spend a Sunday at each campus. It was great to meet people who had been to Mexico as well as make new friends. We are looking forward to their teams visit in July.

Following this visit we had opportunity to visit family in Tulsa Oklahoma, and then traveled to Oregon to visit more family. We also met people to share our ministry.

"God isn't looking for people of great faith, but for individuals ready to follow him."
